

BLUNDERING

Meaning: Blundering refers to acting clumsily or making mistakes due to a lack of careful thought or planning.

1. The team was blundering through the project without a clear plan.
2. His blundering attempts to fix the car only made the problem worse.
3. She felt embarrassed by her blundering response during the meeting.
4. The blundering thief dropped the stolen goods while trying to escape.
5. Despite his blundering mistakes, he managed to learn from the experience.
6. Her blundering dance moves brought laughter from the audience.
7. They were blundering around in the dark, searching for the light switch.
8. The politician's blundering remarks caused an uproar among the crowd.
9. Blundering through the recipe, he accidentally added salt instead of sugar.
10. The blundering efforts to communicate led to several misunderstandings.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blundering>