

BLUNT

Meaning: Blunt: lacking a sharp edge or point; also, straightforward and unrefined in expression.

1. The knife was so blunt that it struggled to cut through even soft vegetables.
2. She appreciated his blunt honesty, even if it sometimes hurt her feelings.
3. His blunt demeanor made it hard for some people to approach him at social gatherings.
4. The artist preferred to use a blunt pencil for creating bold, expressive lines.
5. Her blunt remarks at the meeting caught everyone off guard, but they were refreshingly honest.
6. He gave a blunt warning about the dangers of ignoring the safety protocols.
7. The teacher's blunt feedback helped the students understand their mistakes clearly.
8. After years of use, the scissors had become so blunt that they barely functioned.
9. In a world full of euphemisms, she valued those who spoke with a blunt sincerity.
10. The blunt end of the tool was perfect for the job, as it offered better control.
11. The knife was too blunt to cut through the tough meat.
12. He appreciated her blunt honesty, even if it stung a little.
13. The teacher used a blunt approach to address the students' lack of effort.
14. After years of use, the pencil had become quite blunt and needed sharpening.
15. Her blunt comments often caught people off guard during meetings.
16. Despite his blunt demeanor, he had a heart of gold and cared deeply for others.
17. The blunt edges of the paper made it difficult to create neat crafts.
18. She delivered her feedback in a blunt manner that left no room for misunderstanding.
19. The blunt instrument was not ideal for the delicate task at hand.
20. In the debate, his arguments were refreshingly blunt and straightforward.
21. The knife was so blunt that it struggled to slice through the tomato.
22. She appreciated his blunt honesty, even if it was sometimes uncomfortable.

23. His blunt refusal left no room for negotiation.
24. The artist preferred using a blunt brush to create softer edges in her painting.
25. Despite his blunt demeanor, he had a surprisingly gentle heart.
26. The teacher's feedback was blunt but constructive, guiding the students toward improvement.
27. He spoke in a blunt manner that often caught people off guard.
28. The blunt end of the tool made it safer for children to use.
29. She felt hurt by his blunt comments about her appearance.
30. In the meeting, she used blunt language to address the serious issues at hand.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blunt>