

BLUNTLY

Meaning: BLUNTLY: In a direct and straightforward manner, often without regard for tact or sensitivity.

1. She spoke bluntly about her feelings, leaving no room for misunderstanding.
2. The teacher bluntly told the students that their excuses were unacceptable.
3. He bluntly refused the offer, surprising everyone in the room.
4. During the meeting, she bluntly pointed out the flaws in the proposal.
5. He addressed the issue bluntly, not shying away from the harsh truths.
6. Bluntly put, their performance was subpar and needed significant improvement.
7. When asked about the project, he replied bluntly that it was behind schedule.
8. She bluntly criticized his decision, sparking a heated debate.
9. The doctor spoke bluntly about the seriousness of the diagnosis.
10. Bluntly, he admitted that he had no intention of helping them again.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bluntly>