

BLURRED

Meaning: Blurred: having unclear or indistinct edges or outlines, resulting in a lack of sharpness or focus.

1. The edges of the painting were blurred, giving it a dreamlike quality.
2. After staring at the screen for too long, her vision became blurred and unfocused.
3. His memories of that day were blurred, as if they had been washed away by time.
4. The photograph was blurred, making it difficult to identify the people in it.
5. Emotions often become blurred when we try to analyze them too logically.
6. The background of the scene was intentionally blurred to emphasize the main subject.
7. As the rain fell, the city lights blurred into a beautiful array of colors.
8. Her voice was blurred by the noise of the crowd, making it hard to hear her.
9. The lines between reality and fantasy became blurred in his storytelling.
10. With each passing moment, the details of the incident grew more blurred in his mind.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blurred>