

BLURRY

Meaning: Blurry: lacking clarity or sharpness, resulting in a hazy or indistinct appearance.

1. The photograph came out blurry after the camera shook during the exposure.
2. Her vision was blurry without her glasses, making it hard to read the signs.
3. He tried to describe the dream, but the details were all blurry in his memory.
4. The lines between reality and fantasy felt blurry after hours of daydreaming.
5. As the fog rolled in, the landscape became increasingly blurry and indistinct.
6. She wiped her eyes, trying to clear the blurry view of her surroundings.
7. The artist intentionally painted the background blurry to emphasize the subject.
8. His thoughts were blurry, tangled in confusion during the stressful moment.
9. The movie's action scenes were so fast-paced that they appeared blurry on screen.
10. After a long day, her tired eyes made even the simplest things look blurry.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blurry>