

BLUSHING

Meaning: Blushing is the reddening of the face, typically due to embarrassment, shyness, or emotional response.

1. She felt her cheeks turning red, a sure sign of blushing at his compliment.
2. Blushing is often a response to embarrassment or shyness in social situations.
3. The quiet girl was blushing fiercely when her crush spoke to her.
4. He couldn't help but notice her blushing face as she recounted the embarrassing story.
5. Blushing can indicate feelings of love or attraction in many people.
6. As the spotlight shone on her, she found herself blushing under the pressure.
7. The child's blushing reaction was adorable when he received praise from his teacher.
8. Even after all these years, he still found himself blushing at her playful teasing.
9. She tried to hide her blushing by turning away, but it was too late.
10. The blushing sunset painted the sky in hues of pink and orange.
11. She felt a wave of warmth spread across her face, a sure sign of blushing.
12. His compliments made her cheeks turn a soft shade of pink, blushing in delight.
13. Blushing can often reveal a person's true feelings, even when they try to hide them.
14. The unexpected compliment left him blushing and stumbling over his words.
15. She noticed him blushing as he caught her gaze across the crowded room.
16. Blushing is a natural response to embarrassment or shyness.
17. He tried to suppress his blushing, but the warmth in his face betrayed him.
18. During her speech, she started blushing when she saw her friends smiling encouragingly.
19. Blushing can sometimes be mistaken for anger, but it's often just a sign of vulnerability.
20. The innocent question made him start blushing, caught off guard by the attention.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blushing>