

BLUSHINGLY

Meaning: Blushingly: in a manner characterized by a rosy or flushed appearance due to embarrassment or shyness.

1. She smiled blushfully, her cheeks turning a soft pink at the unexpected compliment.
2. He stood blushingly in front of the class, embarrassed by the attention on his project.
3. Blushingly, she accepted the award, clearly overwhelmed by the recognition.
4. The shy boy walked blushingly away after his crush complimented his drawing.
5. Blushingly, he confessed his feelings, unsure of how she would respond.
6. She was blushingly aware of the eyes on her as she took the stage to perform.
7. He spoke blushingly about his first crush, recalling the innocent moments with a grin.
8. Blushingly, they exchanged glances, both feeling the spark of attraction.
9. The child laughed blushingly, clearly enjoying the playful teasing from his friends.
10. Blushingly, she admitted that she had never been on a date before.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blushingly>