

BLUSHY

Meaning: Blushy (adjective): characterized by or showing a deep red color, typically in the face, due to embarrassment or shyness.

1. The shy girl turned a deep blushy red when her crush walked by.
2. After the compliment, he felt a blushy warmth spread across his cheeks.
3. Her blushy face revealed just how flustered she was by the unexpected praise.
4. The blushy sunset painted the sky with shades of pink and orange.
5. He gave her a flirtatious smile, making her feel blushy and nervous.
6. The blushy flowers in the garden added a touch of romance to the scene.
7. She felt a blushy surge of excitement when she opened the acceptance letter.
8. The blushy puppy wagged its tail, eager for attention and affection.
9. He was so embarrassed that he couldn't help but become blushy in front of everyone.
10. The blushy hues of the painting captured the essence of a warm summer evening.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blushy>