

BLUSTERER

Meaning: BLUSTERER: a person who speaks loudly or aggressively but often lacks sincerity or the ability to back up their claims.

1. The politician was known as a blusterer, often making grand promises without any real intent to follow through.
2. Despite his reputation as a blusterer, many still believed he had the ability to enact meaningful change.
3. In a room full of confident speakers, her role as a blusterer became painfully obvious.
4. The blusterer at the party dominated the conversation, leaving little room for anyone else to contribute.
5. His blusterer nature often masked his insecurities, making him appear more confident than he truly was.
6. Everyone recognized him as a blusterer, yet his charm seemed to win over even the most skeptical guests.
7. The blusterer claimed he could solve all their problems, but no one took him seriously anymore.
8. Being a blusterer might get you noticed, but it rarely earns you respect in professional circles.
9. Among the team, he was labeled a blusterer, yet his enthusiasm often energized their efforts.
10. The blusterer's bravado was entertaining at first, but it soon wore thin as the reality of the situation set in.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blusterer>