

BLUSTERING

Meaning: Blustering refers to speaking or behaving in a loud, aggressive, or boastful manner, often accompanied by strong winds or forceful actions.

1. The blustering winds howled through the trees, creating an eerie atmosphere.
2. He walked into the meeting, blustering about his latest achievements, trying to impress everyone.
3. The blustering politician made grand promises that seemed impossible to keep.
4. Her blustering manner often overshadowed her genuine insights during discussions.
5. Despite his blustering exterior, he was actually quite sensitive and caring.
6. The blustering storm forced us to stay indoors for the entire weekend.
7. Blustering arguments filled the air, but no real solutions emerged from the debate.
8. The old man sat on the porch, blustering about the state of the world to anyone who would listen.
9. As the blustering crowd gathered, anticipation filled the air for the upcoming event.
10. She couldn't help but roll her eyes at his blustering complaints about the service.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blustering>