

BLUSTEROUS

Meaning: Blustrous means characterized by strong, noisy, and forceful movement or sound.

1. The blustorous winds howled through the trees, shaking their branches violently.
2. His blustorous laughter echoed in the hall, filling the space with a sense of joviality.
3. The blustorous debate between the candidates captivated the audience's attention.
4. She had a blustorous personality that often overshadowed the more reserved members of the group.
5. The blustorous waves crashed against the shore, creating a dramatic spectacle.
6. In the midst of the blustorous storm, the lighthouse stood strong and unwavering.
7. His blustorous claims about his achievements were met with skepticism from his peers.
8. The blustorous atmosphere of the party encouraged guests to let loose and have fun.
9. Their blustorous arguments often masked a deeper, more vulnerable side of their friendship.
10. The politician's blustorous speeches were designed to rally support, but they often lacked substance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/blustorous>