

BOASTINGLY

Meaning: In a manner that shows excessive pride or self-satisfaction, often to the point of drawing attention to oneself.

1. She entered the room boastingly, as if her mere presence demanded attention.
2. He spoke boastingly about his accomplishments, oblivious to the discomfort of those around him.
3. The athlete celebrated his victory boastingly, flashing his medals for everyone to see.
4. They walked through the crowd boastingly, reveling in their perceived superiority.
5. She laughed boastingly, recounting tales that seemed exaggerated and far-fetched.
6. Boastingly, he declared that no one could match his skills in the competition.
7. The CEO addressed the employees boastingly, highlighting the company's record profits.
8. He posted boastingly on social media, eager to showcase his latest achievements.
9. With a boastingly raised chin, she claimed to be the best in her field without hesitation.
10. The children ran around boastingly, eager to share their latest trophies with friends.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/boastingly>