

BODING

Meaning: Boding refers to a feeling or indication of a future event, often suggesting something ominous or threatening.

1. The sudden chill in the air was a foreboding sign of the approaching storm.
2. Her furrowed brow and distant gaze gave him a sense of foreboding about their conversation.
3. The old house had a foreboding presence that made visitors feel uneasy.
4. As they hiked deeper into the woods, a foreboding silence fell around them.
5. He couldn't shake the foreboding feeling that something terrible was about to happen.
6. The dark clouds gathered overhead, a foreboding omen of the weather ahead.
7. She glanced at the news, feeling a sense of foreboding about the economic forecast.
8. The eerie music created a foreboding atmosphere in the haunted house.
9. His sudden change in behavior filled her with a sense of foreboding.
10. The novel opens with a foreboding description of the desolate landscape.
11. The sudden chill in the air was a bad boding for the upcoming storm.
12. Her silent tears were a clear boding of the sorrow she felt inside.
13. He interpreted the dark clouds as a boding of misfortune on their journey.
14. The eerie silence of the forest had a boding quality that made her uneasy.
15. His dreams lately had a boding nature, filled with warnings and omens.
16. The ancient text spoke of a boding that heralded the end of an era.
17. She couldn't shake the feeling that the strange events were a boding of trouble ahead.
18. The flickering candlelight cast boding shadows on the walls.
19. The sudden appearance of the raven felt like a boding of death.
20. In folklore, certain animals are often seen as bearers of boding messages.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/boding>