

BODYGUARD

Meaning: A bodyguard is a person employed to protect another individual from harm or danger.

1. The celebrity arrived at the event with a bodyguard by her side.
2. After receiving threats, the politician hired a bodyguard for protection.
3. The bodyguard remained vigilant, scanning the crowd for any potential threats.
4. He trained hard to become a bodyguard, mastering both martial arts and self-defense techniques.
5. The bodyguard's presence gave the actress a sense of security during the premiere.
6. During the protest, a bodyguard ensured the safety of the high-profile speaker.
7. She felt more at ease knowing her bodyguard had extensive experience in crowd control.
8. The bodyguard communicated discreetly with his team through an earpiece.
9. Despite his intimidating appearance, the bodyguard had a gentle demeanor.
10. In a dangerous situation, a skilled bodyguard can mean the difference between life and death.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bodyguard>