

BOGGLER

Meaning: Boggler: something that is confusing or puzzling, often causing astonishment or bewilderment.

1. The magician's latest trick was a real boggler that left the audience in awe.
2. Solving that complex puzzle felt like a boggler for even the most experienced players.
3. Her explanation of quantum physics was a total boggler, making it hard to grasp the concepts.
4. He was known for his boggler of a riddle that stumped everyone at the party.
5. The unexpected turn of events in the story was a true boggler that caught readers off guard.
6. As a boggler, the crossword challenge had everyone scratching their heads in confusion.
7. The sudden twist in the movie plot was a real boggler that surprised even the critics.
8. Finding a connection between those two seemingly unrelated events was a real boggler.
9. The intricate details of the artwork served as a boggler for art enthusiasts and novices alike.
10. Her boggler of a question during the debate left all the candidates momentarily speechless.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/boggler>