

BOILING

Meaning: Boiling refers to the process of a liquid reaching a temperature at which it bubbles and turns to vapor, or to an intense and uncontrollable state of emotion, such as anger.

1. The water was boiling furiously on the stove.
 2. She could feel the boiling anger rising within her.
 3. After boiling the potatoes, he mashed them with butter.
 4. The scientist observed the boiling reaction in the test tube.
 5. On a hot day, the pavement felt like it was boiling underfoot.
 6. He poured the boiling soup into a bowl with great care.
 7. The boiling sun made the beach feel even hotter.
 8. They were warned about the dangers of boiling hot liquids.
 9. Her emotions were boiling over after the stressful meeting.
 10. The kettle whistled, signaling that the water was boiling.
 11. The water is boiling, ready for the pasta.
 12. He could feel the tension in the room boiling over.
 13. On a hot summer day, the pavement seemed to be boiling beneath our feet.
 14. She watched the boiling soup bubble as the flavors melded together.
 15. After hours of discussion, their disagreement was boiling to the surface.
 16. The kettle was whistling, signaling that the water was boiling.
 17. He had a boiling rage that he struggled to contain.
 18. During the heatwave, the temperature outside was practically boiling.
 19. The boiling point of water is 100 degrees Celsius at sea level.
 20. In the laboratory, the scientists were studying the effects of boiling liquids.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/boiling>