

BOIST

Meaning: To boist means to raise or elevate, often in terms of excitement or volume.

1. The children began to boist with excitement as the carnival approached.
2. During the celebration, the crowd would often boist their voices in song.
3. As the night wore on, the atmosphere started to boist with laughter and joy.
4. He tried to calm the situation, but the emotions only seemed to boist.
5. The team's victory party caused spirits to boist throughout the entire town.
6. With each announcement, the audience would boist in anticipation of what was next.
7. The lively music made everyone in the room want to boist and dance.
8. Her enthusiasm for the project seemed to boist the morale of the entire team.
9. As the fireworks lit up the sky, the crowd began to boist with awe.
10. The arrival of the special guest caused the energy in the room to boist dramatically.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/boist>