

BOLO

Meaning: BOLO (noun): An acronym for "Be On the Look Out," used by law enforcement to alert officers to be vigilant for a specific person or vehicle related to a crime.

1. The police issued a BOLO for the suspect who fled the scene.
2. After the robbery, a BOLO was broadcasted to all nearby police departments.
3. The detective glanced at his phone to check the latest BOLO updates.
4. He couldn't believe how quickly the BOLO spread across social media.
5. The BOLO included a detailed description of the vehicle used in the crime.
6. She felt a sense of urgency when she heard the BOLO announcement.
7. Law enforcement agencies across the state were on high alert for the BOLO.
8. The search team was briefed on the BOLO before heading out.
9. A BOLO can be a crucial tool in locating missing persons.
10. The officer was proud to have played a role in resolving a case following the BOLO.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bolo>