

BOLSTER

Meaning: To bolster means to support or strengthen something, such as an argument or security.

1. The new evidence will help bolster her argument in court.
 2. They installed additional lighting to bolster security in the parking lot.
 3. To bolster their reputation, the company decided to launch a charitable initiative.
 4. He took extra classes to bolster his knowledge of the subject.
 5. The team's recent victories served to bolster their confidence for the upcoming tournament.
 6. Community support can significantly bolster the effectiveness of local programs.
 7. She used persuasive statistics to bolster her claims during the presentation.
 8. Investing in employee training can bolster productivity and job satisfaction.
 9. His encouraging words helped to bolster her spirits during difficult times.
 10. The government plans to bolster the economy with a series of tax incentives.
 11. The community organized a fundraiser to bolster support for local charities.
 12. She used positive feedback from her colleagues to bolster her confidence before the presentation.
 13. The new policy was designed to bolster employee morale and improve job satisfaction.
 14. In order to bolster his argument, he presented compelling evidence from reputable sources.
 15. The government plans to bolster the economy by investing in infrastructure projects.
 16. Innovative marketing strategies can help to bolster a brand's visibility in a competitive market.
 17. Regular exercise can bolster both physical health and mental well-being.
 18. The team worked together to bolster their performance during the final matches of the season.
 19. Installing security cameras helped to bolster the safety of the neighborhood.
 20. She decided to take a course to bolster her skills and enhance her career prospects.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bolster>