

BOLSTERER

Meaning: A bolsterer is a person or thing that supports, strengthens, or reinforces someone or something, particularly in terms of morale or confidence.

1. The coach acted as a bolstering force for the team's morale during tough times.
2. Her encouraging words served as a bolstering reminder of their potential.
3. In the face of adversity, he became a major bolstering presence for his colleagues.
4. The community rallied together, proving to be a bolstering support for the local business.
5. His innovative ideas were seen as a bolstering contribution to the project's success.
6. The mentor's guidance was a bolstering factor in her professional growth.
7. The scholarship program acts as a bolstering tool for underprivileged students.
8. Their friendship became a bolstering element in her journey toward self-discovery.
9. He took on the role of a bolstering advocate for environmental causes.
10. The new policies are intended to be a bolstering mechanism for economic recovery.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bolsterer>