

BOMBARD

Meaning: To attack or assail persistently or intensively, especially with explosive projectiles or overwhelming questions.

1. The military plans to bombard the enemy stronghold at dawn.
2. Journalists often bombard celebrities with questions during red carpet events.
3. The waves continued to bombard the shore with relentless force.
4. After the announcement, fans began to bombard the singer's social media accounts with messages.
5. Critics were quick to bombard the new policy with negative reviews.
6. Children often bombard their parents with endless requests for snacks.
7. The company faced backlash as customers bombarded them with complaints about the product.
8. During the storm, the heavy rain seemed to bombard the city for hours.
9. The researchers sought to bombard the cells with a new treatment to observe its effects.
10. In the debate, the candidate was bombarded with tough questions from the audience.
11. The teacher decided to bombard the students with questions to encourage critical thinking.
12. During the debate, he bombarded his opponent with facts and statistics.
13. The army planned to bombard the enemy stronghold before launching a ground attack.
14. After the article was published, the author was bombarded with messages from readers.
15. The child bombarded his parents with requests for a puppy after seeing one at the pet store.
16. As the storm approached, the coast was bombarded with heavy rain and strong winds.
17. The marketing team aimed to bombard potential customers with ads to increase brand awareness.
18. In the courtroom, the lawyer bombarded the witness with rapid-fire questions.
19. The film was bombarded with both praise and criticism upon its release.
20. After the event, the organizers were bombarded with feedback from attendees.
21. The activists planned to bombard the government with petitions for change.

22. During the storm, the coastal town was bombarded by heavy rain and fierce winds.
23. Students often feel bombarded by information during exam season.
24. The marketing team decided to bombard potential customers with ads on social media.
25. In the movie, the hero must bombard the enemy fortress to save the captured villagers.
26. After the news broke, the celebrity was bombarded with questions from reporters.
27. The lecture bombarded the audience with complex theories and jargon.
28. As the deadline approached, she felt bombarded by her workload and responsibilities.
29. The comedian's jokes bombarded the audience with laughter throughout the night.
30. In the debate, she bombarded her opponent with facts and statistics to strengthen her argument.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bombard>