

BOMBAZINE

Meaning: Bombazine is a type of fabric, typically made of silk and wool or cotton, known for its soft, lustrous texture and often used in formal or mourning garments.

1. The elegant evening gown was made of rich bombazine, giving it a luxurious drape.
2. In the 19th century, bombazine was often favored for mourning attire due to its somber texture.
3. She admired the intricate patterns woven into the bombazine fabric, which added depth to her dress.
4. The tailor recommended bombazine for its durability and exquisite finish for the formal event.
5. He explained that bombazine was a blend of silk and wool, making it both soft and resilient.
6. As she ran her fingers over the bombazine, she appreciated how it caught the light beautifully.
7. The historical museum displayed a collection of garments made from bombazine, showcasing its popularity.
8. In literature, bombazine has often been referenced as a symbol of elegance and refinement.
9. The artist chose bombazine for her latest project, believing it would add a touch of sophistication.
10. At the vintage market, she was thrilled to find a bombazine shawl that perfectly complemented her outfit.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bombazine>