

BOMBINATE

Meaning: To bombinate means to make a humming or buzzing sound, often associated with bees or a low, resonant noise.

1. The bees began to bombinate around the blooming flowers as the sun rose.
2. As the crowd gathered, a low hum started to bombinate through the air, building excitement.
3. In the quiet of the library, only the sound of the ceiling fan seemed to bombinate softly.
4. The children laughed and chased each other, their voices bombinating joyfully in the park.
5. During the hike, we paused to listen to the nature sounds bombinating all around us.
6. The artist wanted to capture the bombinate of the city life in her latest painting.
7. In the evening, the cicadas began to bombinate, creating a symphony of sounds in the night.
8. The old engine would bombinate loudly, echoing through the quiet streets at dawn.
9. As the conversation flowed, ideas began to bombinate between the friends gathered at the table.
10. The distant sound of thunder began to bombinate, hinting at the approaching storm.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bombinate>