

BOMBPROOF

Meaning: Bombproof: designed to withstand extreme conditions or impacts; exceptionally resilient or unyielding.

1. The new smartphone case is designed to be bombproof, ensuring it survives even the toughest drops.
2. In the face of adversity, her bombproof determination helped her achieve her goals.
3. The military uses bombproof vehicles to protect soldiers in combat zones.
4. During the storm, the bombproof shelter provided a safe haven for the entire family.
5. His bombproof logic made it difficult for anyone to argue against his point of view.
6. The architect created a bombproof design for the building to enhance its security.
7. Even in the most challenging circumstances, she has a bombproof faith in her abilities.
8. The bombproof vest offered the highest level of protection for the undercover agent.
9. Their friendship proved to be bombproof, standing strong despite all the challenges they faced.
10. They invested in bombproof technology to safeguard the data center from potential attacks.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bombproof>