

BOMBSHELL

Meaning: A bombshell is a surprising or shocking piece of news or information.

1. The news of the merger was a real bombshell that took everyone by surprise.
2. She dropped a bombshell during the meeting when she announced her resignation.
3. The documentary revealed a bombshell secret about the celebrity's past.
4. His latest novel contains a bombshell twist that leaves readers in shock.
5. The politician's bombshell statement changed the course of the campaign.
6. Everyone was left in disbelief after the bombshell revelation at the press conference.
7. The scientist's findings were a bombshell that challenged long-held beliefs.
8. When she walked in with the new partner, it felt like a bombshell had been unleashed.
9. The court's decision was a bombshell that rocked the legal community.
10. Her bombshell confession turned the evening into a dramatic spectacle.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bombshell>