

BONDMAN

Meaning: A bondman is a person who is bound to serve another, typically as a result of debt or servitude.

1. The bondman worked tirelessly to repay his debts.
2. In ancient times, a bondman was often bound to a life of servitude.
3. The story revolves around a bondman seeking freedom from his lord.
4. He was once a proud noble, but now he lived as a bondman in the fields.
5. The bondman's loyalty to his master was tested during the uprising.
6. A bondman in the city shared tales of his struggles with others.
7. The plight of the bondman was a central theme in the novel.
8. She felt sympathy for the bondman, understanding his desperate situation.
9. The bondman's journey towards emancipation was fraught with challenges.
10. Through his trials, the bondman learned the true meaning of resilience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bondman>