

BOOHOO

Meaning: "Boohhoo" is an exclamation used to express exaggerated sorrow or crying, often in a dramatic or theatrical manner.

1. She started to cry, letting out a dramatic "boohhoo" as she lamented her lost toy.
2. When he saw the sad movie, he couldn't help but exclaim "boohhoo" in the middle of the theater.
3. The toddler threw a tantrum, wailing "boohhoo" when his ice cream fell to the ground.
4. Feeling overwhelmed by her workload, she sighed and muttered a sarcastic "boohhoo" to herself.
5. After reading the heartbreaking news, he typed "boohhoo" in the group chat to express his sorrow.
6. As the dog whimpered in the rain, it sounded like it was saying "boohhoo" in despair.
7. She mocked the sad scene in the book by jokingly saying "boohhoo" in a silly voice.
8. The child pretended to cry, dramatically saying "boohhoo" for his friends' amusement.
9. Every time she faced a minor inconvenience, she would humorously exclaim "boohhoo" to lighten the mood.
10. He rolled his eyes at the melodrama, thinking to himself, "Here comes the boohhoo again."

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/boohoo>