

BOOK

Meaning: A book is a set of written, printed, or blank pages bound together, typically containing text or illustrations.

1. She always carries a book in her bag for the commute.
2. The library is hosting a book fair next weekend.
3. He decided to write a book about his travels around the world.
4. Reading a good book can transport you to another time and place.
5. She found an old book hidden in the attic, covered in dust.
6. The book club meets every Thursday to discuss the latest novel.
7. He borrowed a fascinating book on ancient history from the library.
8. She was captivated by the book's intricate plot twists and character development.
9. Every evening, he settles down with a cup of tea and a good book.
10. The author signed copies of her new book at the local bookstore.
11. She borrowed a fascinating book about ancient civilizations from the library.
12. He lost himself in a thrilling mystery book that kept him up all night.
13. Reading a book by the fireplace is one of her favorite winter activities.
14. The book club meets every month to discuss their latest read.
15. He found an old book tucked away in the attic, filled with handwritten notes.
16. She decided to write a book chronicling her travels around the world.
17. The book was so captivating that he finished it in a single sitting.
18. A well-written book can transport you to another time and place.
19. They gifted him a book about photography, knowing his passion for the art.