

BOOKER

Meaning: Booker refers to a literary award, specifically the Booker Prize, which honors exceptional contributions to literature.

1. Booker was thrilled to receive the award for his outstanding contributions to literature.
2. The Booker Prize is one of the most prestigious literary awards in the world.
3. She cherished the signed copy of the novel that her favorite author had sent her through Booker.
4. After several months of hard work, Booker finally completed his first manuscript.
5. The discussion about the latest Booker Prize winner sparked a lively debate among the book club members.
6. He decided to pursue a career in publishing after interning at a renowned house like Booker.
7. In the meeting, Booker presented his innovative ideas for the upcoming project.
8. Many aspiring writers dream of being recognized by the Booker Prize judges.
9. At the library, Booker often lost track of time while browsing through the shelves.
10. The character development in that novel truly showcases why Booker is a master storyteller.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/booker>