BOOKFUL

Meaning: BOOKFUL: (noun) a quantity of content or information that can fill a book, often referring to a collection of stories, recipes, or similar material.

1. The library was filled with a bookful of stories waiting to be discovered.
2. She had a bookful of recipes that her grandmother used to make.
3. After a week of traveling, he returned home with a bookful of memories.
4. The professor handed out a bookful of assignments for the students to complete.
5. Each shelf contained a bookful of knowledge, ready to be explored.
6. He claimed to have a bookful of advice on how to improve your writing.
7. The children sat quietly, engrossed in a bookful of fairy tales.
8. During the winter break, she found a bookful of novels to read by the fireplace.
9. With a bookful of ideas, the team gathered to brainstorm for the project.
10. As the rain poured outside, she settled in with a bookful of adventures to enjoy.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bookful