

BOOKWORM

Meaning: A bookworm is a person who loves reading and spends a lot of time engrossed in books.

1. My sister is a bookworm who spends every free moment lost in a novel.
2. Growing up, I always admired my friend for being such a dedicated bookworm.
3. The library hosted a special event for all the bookworms in the community.
4. As a bookworm, I often find myself exploring new genres I never thought I would enjoy.
5. Being a bookworm has its perks, like having a never-ending list of recommendations.
6. In her cozy nook, the bookworm devoured every book on the shelf.
7. The bookworm in him couldn't resist the temptation of a new bestseller.
8. She proudly identified herself as a bookworm, always carrying a book in her bag.
9. His bookworm tendencies sometimes made him the go-to person for literary advice.
10. Even though he was a bookworm, he occasionally enjoyed the thrill of a good movie adaptation.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bookworm>