

BOOTLESS

Meaning: Bootless (adjective): futile or without success; producing no useful result.

1. His attempts to reason with her were ultimately bootless, as she had already made up her mind.
2. The bootless pursuit of wealth left him feeling empty and unfulfilled.
3. After hours of searching, their efforts proved bootless and they decided to return home.
4. A bootless argument with his supervisor only added to his frustration at work.
5. Despite their bootless attempts to save the project, they learned valuable lessons for the future.
6. She realized that her bootless quest for approval was draining her spirit.
7. The bootless endeavor to change his mind led to more conflict than understanding.
8. His bootless struggle against the tide of public opinion only made matters worse.
9. In the face of bootless opposition, she stood firm in her beliefs.
10. They embarked on a bootless journey that taught them more about themselves than their destination.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bootless>