

BORDAR

Meaning: BORDAR (verb): To embellish or decorate the edges of fabric or artwork with stitching or patterns.

1. The artist decided to bordar the edges of her canvas with intricate patterns.
2. In many cultures, it is customary to bordar garments with traditional motifs.
3. She learned to bordar from her grandmother, who had a talent for embroidery.
4. The workshop focused on techniques to bordar using both thread and beads.
5. To add a personal touch, he chose to bordar his initials on the handkerchief.
6. During the festival, vendors displayed beautifully bordar pieces made by local artisans.
7. Her passion for sewing inspired her to bordar designs that reflected her heritage.
8. They spent the afternoon learning how to bordar a blanket with colorful threads.
9. The skill to bordar takes patience and a keen eye for detail.
10. After hours of work, she finally finished bordar the family crest on the robe.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bordar>