

BOROUGHHOLDER

Meaning: A boroughholder is an elected or appointed official responsible for representing and managing the interests of a borough's residents.

1. The boroughholder attended the town meeting to discuss community issues.
2. As a boroughholder, she took her responsibilities to her constituents very seriously.
3. The newly elected boroughholder promised to improve local infrastructure.
4. Residents often turned to their boroughholder for assistance with civic matters.
5. During the festival, the boroughholder was seen engaging with the community members.
6. The boroughholder's office was filled with plans for upcoming urban development projects.
7. After years of service, the boroughholder decided to step down and focus on family.
8. She was commended by the mayor for her dedication as a boroughholder.
9. The boroughholder organized a charity event to support local schools.
10. Citizens expressed their concerns directly to the boroughholder during the open forum.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/boroughholder>