BOSSISM

Meaning: Bossism refers to a management style characterized by authoritarian leadership and a lack of regard for employee input, often resulting in a negative workplace atmosphere.

1. Bossism often leads to a toxic work environment where employees feel undervalued.
2. The company struggled to overcome the effects of bossism after the management change.
3. In a culture of bossism, innovation often takes a backseat to pleasing authority figures.
4. Her disdain for bossism made her a popular figure among her colleagues.
5. Critics argue that bossism stifles collaboration and creativity within teams.
6. The rise of remote work has challenged traditional forms of bossism in many organizations.
7. Many employees actively seek workplaces that prioritize empowerment over bossism.
8. Bossism can create barriers to open communication and transparency in leadership.
9. He decided to leave the company due to its entrenched culture of bossism.
10. Organizations that embrace a flat hierarchy often reject the principles of bossism.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bossism