

BOTCHER

Meaning: A botcher is a person who performs work poorly or ineptly, resulting in mistakes or unfinished tasks.

1. The contractor was labeled a botcher after he left the project half-finished.
2. She hired a professional to fix the botcher's mistakes that marred her garden.
3. His reputation as a botcher preceded him, making clients wary of hiring him.
4. The chef was accused of being a botcher when the meal was served cold and undercooked.
5. Despite his talent, he often came off as a botcher due to his careless approach.
6. Everyone knew that the botcher would not be able to complete the repairs on time.
7. Her attempts at fixing the dress only made her look like a botcher in front of her friends.
8. The botcher's handiwork was evident in the uneven paint and crooked shelves.
9. They decided to redo the project themselves after realizing the botcher's errors were too significant.
10. No one wanted to associate with the botcher who constantly made mistakes on simple tasks.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/botcher>