

BOTHER

Meaning: BOTHER (verb): To disturb or annoy someone, especially by interrupting or causing inconvenience.

1. Please don't bother me while I'm working on this project.
2. I didn't mean to bother you with my constant questions.
3. It really doesn't bother me if you choose to leave early.
4. She always seems to bother him when he's trying to concentrate.
5. I hope I'm not bothering you by asking for your assistance.
6. He didn't want to bother his neighbors with loud music.
7. Can you please stop bothering me with trivial matters?
8. They were too polite to bother anyone with their complaints.
9. It doesn't bother me at all that we missed the deadline.
10. I understand that you might feel bothered by the noise.
11. I didn't mean to bother you with my problems.
12. She always tries to bother me during my study time.
13. It's not worth it to bother him over something so trivial.
14. Please don't bother knocking; the door is wide open.
15. I hate to bother you, but could you help me with this?
16. He didn't want to bother anyone with his complaints.
17. Sometimes, it's best to let things go and not bother at all.
18. Do you think it would bother her if we changed the plan?
19. I hope I didn't bother you with my endless questions.
20. They often bother the neighbors with their loud music.
21. Please don't bother me while I'm studying for my exams.
22. She didn't want to bother him with her problems, knowing he had a lot on his plate.

23. It's not worth it to bother yourself over things you can't control.
24. He always finds a way to bother his siblings, even when they ask him to stop.
25. I didn't mean to bother you; I just wanted to ask a quick question.
26. The constant noise from the construction site began to really bother the residents.
27. Can you believe he would bother to send such a long email about nothing?
28. She tried not to let the little things bother her, focusing instead on the big picture.
29. He decided to bother his friend with a silly joke to lighten the mood.
30. Don't let minor setbacks bother you; keep pushing forward.

*Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bother>*