

BOTHERATION

Meaning: BOTHERATION: A state of annoyance or irritation caused by a persistent disturbance or inconvenience.

1. The constant noise from the construction site was a real botheration to my concentration.
2. She expressed her botheration over the delays in the project during the meeting.
3. His late arrival was a botheration for the entire team, who were eager to start.
4. I find it a botheration when people interrupt me while I'm speaking.
5. The repeated phone calls became a botheration I could no longer tolerate.
6. Her indecisiveness was a botheration that frustrated everyone involved in the planning.
7. There's no need for botheration when we can resolve this issue quickly.
8. He handled the botheration of the missing files with remarkable patience.
9. The weather turned out to be a botheration for our outdoor plans.
10. I must admit, the botheration of commuting every day wears me down.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/botheration>