

BOTULIFORM

Meaning: Botuliform refers to a shape or appearance that is swollen or bulbous, resembling that of a botulinum toxin or the characteristic form of certain bacteria.

1. The botuliform appearance of the fish raised concerns among the researchers.
2. In the lab, we observed a botuliform structure that was previously undocumented.
3. The artist's sculpture had a botuliform design that evoked both curiosity and discomfort.
4. Botuliform infections can lead to serious health complications if not treated promptly.
5. The peculiar botuliform shape of the mold caught the attention of the biologist.
6. During the experiment, the botuliform sample reacted differently than anticipated.
7. The team published a paper detailing the botuliform characteristics of the new species.
8. Botuliform formations often indicate a specific environmental condition or pathogen presence.
9. Her description of the botuliform artifact was so vivid that it intrigued the entire class.
10. The documentary highlighted the dangers associated with botuliform toxins in food safety.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/botuliform>