

BOUND

Meaning: Bound (adjective): obligated by a promise or commitment; also, having pages fastened together and covered, typically in a protective material.

1. She was bound by her promise to help her friend.
2. The book was bound in leather, giving it a classic look.
3. He felt bound to his duties, even at the expense of his own happiness.
4. The river was bound by its banks, flowing steadily downstream.
5. After years of hard work, she was finally bound for success.
6. They were bound together by a shared experience that changed their lives.
7. The contract was legally binding, ensuring both parties upheld their end of the deal.
8. With each passing day, he felt more bound to the city he had grown to love.
9. As the train pulled away, she felt bound by a mix of excitement and nostalgia.
10. The old letters were bound in a dusty folder, preserving memories from the past.
11. She felt bound by her promise to help her friend.
12. The river was bound by the banks that contained its flow.
13. His excitement was boundless as he opened the long-awaited gift.
14. They were bound for adventure as they set sail into the horizon.
15. The contract clearly stated that they were bound to meet certain deadlines.
16. She was bound to succeed, given her talent and determination.
17. The dog was bound to its owner by a sturdy leash during the walk.
18. Their friendship was bound by shared experiences and memories.
19. He realized he was bound by his own fears and insecurities.
20. The book's plot was tightly bound, connecting every character in surprising ways.
21. She was bound by her promise to help him no matter what.
22. The river was bound by the mountains on either side, creating a stunning landscape.

23. He felt bound by the weight of expectations placed upon him by his family.
24. The dog was bound to the tree with a sturdy leash, wagging its tail eagerly.
25. Their fates seemed bound together, intertwined in ways they couldn't fully understand.
26. The book's pages were bound tightly, ensuring it would last for years to come.
27. With every step, she felt her ambitions boundless, stretching far beyond her current reality.
28. They were bound for adventure, packing their bags with excitement and anticipation.
29. In her heart, she knew she was bound to discover the truth, no matter the cost.
30. The contract clearly stated that both parties were bound to meet their obligations.
31. He was bound for success after years of hard work and dedication.
32. The contract clearly stated that they were bound to confidentiality.
33. With every step, she felt her fears bound tightly within her.
34. The dog was bound to the post, unable to wander far.
35. The two countries were bound together by a long-standing alliance.
36. He realized his dreams were bound by the limits he placed on himself.
37. She was bound to the tradition of her family, despite her personal desires.
38. The novel's themes are bound intricately with the characters' journeys.
39. The dog was bound to its owner by a sturdy leash.
40. The river was bound by the mountains on either side.
41. He is bound to succeed if he keeps working hard.
42. The books were bound in leather and embossed with gold.
43. They were bound for the airport to catch their flight.
44. Her heart was bound with a mix of hope and fear.
45. The contract clearly stated that both parties were bound to the agreement.
46. He felt bound by tradition, unable to break free.
47. The children were bound together in a pact of friendship.
48. The river was bound by the rocky cliffs on either side.

49. He was bound to succeed if he kept working hard.
 50. The package was bound securely with twine.
 51. Her heart was bound with love for her family.
 52. They are bound for adventure as they set sail tomorrow.
 53. The rules are binding and must be followed by all participants.
 54. The novel explores the idea of being bound by fate.
 55. She was bound to the chair, unable to move after the accident.
 56. Their lives are bound together by a shared history.
 57. She felt bound by her promise to keep the secret.
 58. The two friends were bound together by years of shared experiences.
 59. He was bound for New York on the next train.
 60. The contract clearly states that both parties are bound to its terms.
 61. Their friendship is bound to grow stronger with time and trust.
 62. The dog was bound to the porch with a sturdy leash.
 63. She was bound by her responsibilities as a caregiver.
 64. He could tell that fate had bound their lives inextricably.
 65. The novel was set in a world where time and space were bound by magic.
 66. Despite the challenges, they were bound to succeed together.
 67. She was bound for success after years of hard work and dedication.
 68. He felt bound by his promises to help his friends.
 69. The package was securely bound with twine to prevent any damage.
 70. They were bound together by a shared passion for adventure.
 71. Rules are meant to be followed, and I am bound by them.
 72. As the train departed, she felt her heart bound with excitement.
 73. He was bound by contract to complete the project by the deadline.
 74. The community was bound by a strong sense of loyalty and trust.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bound>