

BOUNDER

Meaning: Bounder: a person or animal that leaps or bounds energetically, often associated with rule-breaking or unscrupulous behavior in competitive contexts.

1. The dog was a natural bounder, leaping effortlessly over the garden fence.
2. In the world of sports, a bounder is often seen as someone who breaks the rules for their own gain.
3. Her bounder personality made her both charming and frustrating to those around her.
4. The children watched in awe as the bounder cat jumped from one rooftop to another.
5. He was labeled a bounder after his reckless behavior at the party.
6. As a bounder, he reveled in the thrill of challenging authority.
7. The novel's protagonist was a bounder, whose adventures led him into trouble at every turn.
8. Despite his charm, everyone knew he was a bounder at heart.
9. The bounder nature of the river made it difficult for boats to navigate safely.
10. She described her ex-boyfriend as a bounder, always looking for the next big thrill.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bounder>