

BOUNTY

Meaning: Bounty: a large amount or abundance of something, especially in terms of rewards or produce.

1. The treasure hunters were excited by the promise of a huge bounty buried on the island.
2. In the spring, the garden yields a bounty of colorful flowers and fresh vegetables.
3. The government announced a bounty for information leading to the capture of the fugitive.
4. She felt a sense of bounty as she shared her home with friends during the holidays.
5. His hard work and dedication resulted in a bounty of opportunities for career advancement.
6. The artist's latest exhibition showcased a bounty of creativity and innovation.
7. With each successful harvest, the farmers celebrated the bounty of their labor.
8. The ocean provided a bounty of fish, sustaining the village for generations.
9. In folklore, the harvest moon represents a bounty of blessings and gratitude.
10. The festival was a vibrant display of cultural bounty, featuring music, dance, and food.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bounty>