

BOWINGLY

Meaning: BOWINGLY: In a manner that demonstrates respect or submission, often characterized by a physical gesture of bending forward or lowering the body.

1. He approached the audience bowingly, showing respect for their presence.
2. The dog sat down bowingly, eager for a treat from its owner.
3. She greeted her mentor bowingly, acknowledging his influence on her career.
4. The servant entered the room bowingly, careful not to disturb the formal atmosphere.
5. The children bowed bowingly, imitating their favorite characters from the play.
6. During the ceremony, the cultural performers danced bowingly to honor their ancestors.
7. He spoke bowingly, choosing his words carefully to avoid offending anyone.
8. The actor took a bow bowingly at the end of the performance, grateful for the applause.
9. With a bowingly graceful gesture, she welcomed her guests into her home.
10. The prince walked bowingly through the crowd, receiving cheers from his subjects.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bowingly>