

BOWWOW

Meaning: BOWWOW (noun): The sound made by a dog; a bark.

1. The little girl imitated her puppy's bowwow with surprising accuracy.
2. Hearing a sudden bowwow from next door, I checked to see if everything was alright.
3. The children's book featured a friendly dog who always said "bowwow" when excited.
4. Even though I'm not a dog person, I found the puppy's enthusiastic bowwow endearing.
5. The recording of the bowwow served as a deterrent to potential burglars.
6. Instead of barking, the small dog let out a high-pitched bowwow.
7. The child pointed to the picture of the dog and confidently said, "Bowwow!"
8. Despite being old and frail, the dog still managed a weak bowwow when his owner arrived.
9. The comedian's impression of a dog's bowwow had the audience in stitches.
10. The toddler learned to associate the word "dog" with the sound "bowwow."

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bowwow>