

BRABBLEMENT

Meaning: Brabblement: a noisy quarrel or argument, often over trivial matters.

1. The ongoing brabblement between the departments hindered project progress.
2. The committee meeting devolved into a petty brabblement over budgetary allocations.
3. Despite the brabblement, a consensus was eventually reached.
4. The incessant brabblement from the next office made concentrating difficult.
5. Their brabblement stemmed from a long-standing disagreement about company policy.
6. The brabblement subsided as the mediator presented a compromise.
7. The political brabblement grew louder as the election approached.
8. He dismissed the argument as a meaningless brabblement.
9. The siblings' brabblement was a familiar sound in the household.
10. The lawyer attempted to quell the brabblement between the plaintiffs.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/brabblement>