

BRACKY

Meaning: Bracky refers to weather conditions characterized by a mixture of salty and fresh water, often associated with coastal or estuarine environments.

1. The weather was so bracky that I could barely taste the salt in the air.
2. After a week of bracky conditions, the fishermen finally returned with a good catch.
3. She noticed the bracky tang in her mouth after swimming in the ocean.
4. The bracky winds whipped through the streets, carrying the scent of the sea.
5. His lips felt dry and bracky from spending too much time under the sun.
6. As they walked along the shore, they savored the bracky aroma of seaweed.
7. The bracky flavor of the seafood reminded him of his childhood vacations by the coast.
8. They enjoyed a bracky afternoon at the beach, collecting seashells and enjoying the surf.
9. The bracky mist from the waves splashed against their faces, refreshing them instantly.
10. During their hike, they often paused to admire the bracky views of the coastline.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bracky>