

BRAGGADOCIO

Meaning: Braggadocio is boastful or arrogant behavior and speech, often intended to impress others.

1. His constant braggadocio was exhausting to everyone around him.
2. The athlete's braggadocio after winning the championship annoyed his competitors.
3. Despite his brilliance, his braggadocio often overshadowed his achievements.
4. She dismissed his braggadocio as a mask for his insecurities.
5. In a world of quiet confidence, his braggadocio stood out like a sore thumb.
6. The politician's braggadocio during the debate alienated many voters.
7. Her braggadocio about her wealth did little to endear her to her peers.
8. Even amidst his braggadocio, there were glimpses of genuine humility.
9. The movie portrayed a character whose braggadocio led to his downfall.
10. They found his braggadocio amusing at first, but it quickly became tiresome.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/braggadocio>