

BRAGGER

Meaning: A bragger is a person who boasts or speaks with excessive pride about their achievements or possessions.

1. He always comes off as a bragger, never missing a chance to boast about his accomplishments.
2. At the party, her constant name-dropping revealed her as a true bragger among friends.
3. Most people dislike a bragger, preferring humility over excessive self-promotion.
4. Even though he was the best player on the team, his friends still found him to be a bragger.
5. Her tendency to show off her wealth made her a notorious bragger in their social circle.
6. Despite being talented, she tried not to be a bragger, allowing her work to speak for itself.
7. The bragger in the office often alienated his colleagues with his relentless self-praise.
8. She quickly learned that being a bragger pushed people away rather than drew them closer.
9. In a world full of bragger, sincerity and modesty can be refreshing qualities.
10. His bragger personality often overshadowed his genuine achievements, frustrating those around him.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bragger>