

BRAGGINGLY

Meaning: BRAGGINGLY: in a manner that shows excessive pride in one's achievements or possessions.

1. He braggingly recounted his achievements at the awards ceremony.
2. She walked into the room braggingly, flaunting her new designer handbag.
3. Braggingly, he announced that he had secured the highest sales in the company.
4. They told the story of their vacation braggingly, emphasizing every luxurious detail.
5. The athlete spoke braggingly about his record-breaking performance.
6. She couldn't help but share her promotion braggingly with her friends.
7. Braggingly, he claimed he could run a marathon without training.
8. During dinner, he braggingly mentioned how many followers he had on social media.
9. She glanced around the table and braggingly declared her culinary skills.
10. Braggingly, they shared their travel experiences, hoping to impress everyone.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/braggingly>