

BRAIL

Meaning: Brail is a tactile writing system consisting of raised dots that allows individuals who are visually impaired to read and write.

1. Brail is a tactile writing system used by individuals who are visually impaired.
2. She learned to read brail in order to better assist her blind students.
3. The brail labels on the packaging made it easier for him to identify the products.
4. He felt the raised dots of brail as he navigated through the unfamiliar room.
5. Many public places are now including brail signage for accessibility.
6. The brail book she was reading offered a fascinating story full of adventure.
7. Her proficiency in brail opened doors to new opportunities in her career.
8. They donated brail textbooks to the local school for visually impaired children.
9. Learning brail requires patience and practice, but it is incredibly rewarding.
10. The brail display on his device allowed him to read emails independently.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/brail>